We will be welcoming New Members at the 9:15am & 11:15am services Sunday, February 21. If you would like to join UCG, there is an orientation session on Thursday, February 11 at 5:30pm in Reimer Hall. See page 3 for details

Join us for our Ash Wednesday Services, February 10 at 12:00 Noon or at 7:00 PM. The season of Lent begins on this day, and continues for forty days and six Sundays that parallel the time of preparation Jesus spent in the wilderness. We have the gift of these forty days to reflect and focus on our spiritual journeys. Lent is a pilgrimage that offers us opportunities to refresh, re-create, and to remind ourselves of who we are as spirit beings. We will make the road by walking, all along the Lenten journey, exploring what we need, what we bear, and what will help us on the road. Be here for a special service of silence, labyrinth, ashes, music, and communion.

What's Happening in February ²

Food First Sunday, February 7

Food First, UCG's monthly food drive for the Gainesville Community Ministry food bank, started 2016 off with a very generous 259 pounds donated to Gainesville Community Ministries! Your continued support feeds those in our community who have limited resources to purchase healthy food. Here are some staple items requested: Canned meat, canned soups, canned fruit, hot or cold cereal, juice boxes, granola bars. These items are BOGOs almost every week. Please note we are also now collecting travel sized soaps and shampoos! Thanks again for increasing our donation amounts.

PNO (Parent's Night Out) on Friday, February 12 at UCG

PNO is for parents of babies through 5th grade. The cost is $11 for the first child and $6 for each additional child and includes pizza and apple wedges. Please RSVP by Wednesday, February 9 to summerh@ucgainesville.org. *Due to life threatening food allergies, no outside food is allowed.

Compassion in Action Heart Collection

It is the time of year that UCG (through the Compassion in Action committee) supports the Gainesville Area AIDS Project (GAAP) with their TREE program (The Replenishment of Everyday Essentials). TREE provides household and personal hygiene products for persons living with HIV/AIDS who are living on disability and food stamps. The supplies provided cannot be purchased with food stamps. Please pick a Heart off of the large Heart in the foyer on Sunday morning, Feb. 7th and 14th and bring the heart item back to church by Feb. 21st. Together we make a difference in people's lives. Thank you.

Other Voices Concert, Saturday, February 20 7:30pm

You are invited to an evening of live music and fellowship at UCG Since joining UCG (and before) I have enjoyed my many opportunities to join with other members to play music on Sunday morning and at other church events. Through this I've grown as a musician and as a person. Now I'd like to give back. For the past 15 years I've performed with the group Other Voices. We describe our music as folk and roll. You might know it more as adult, acoustic rock. We're Fagan Arouh, singer/songwriter and guitar wizard; Michael Dan Tampas, singer/songwriter and guitar; Michelle Ott, singer/songwriter and hand percussion; and me, Alan Hill on bass. We promise to provide a variety of original music in several genres mostly about love, lost or found, but all about life. We'll also throw in some covers from Crosby, Stills and Nash. I hope you can come. Invite your friends. This is a public event. Admission is only $10 but feel free to give more. Proceeds will support the upgrade of the sound system in the Sanctuary. Regards, Alan Hill, Board of Business and Bass

UCG Supper Club

The UCG Supper Club is a great way to meet members and share a meal and fellowship. We meet in groups of 8-10 in the homes of members. Recipes are provided so that each group shares the same menu. The next Supper Club will be Saturday, February 20 and will be an Asian-inspired menu with a chocolate dessert in honor of Valentine's Day. Please contact Anne Casella (annecasella@gmail.com, 378-0505) or Kimberly McCollough (Kimberly.mccollough@sfcollge.edu, 378-8371) if you would like to participate. If you are able to host one of the groups, please let them know. The deadline to sign up is Sunday, February 7.

Fellowship Sunday February 21

February 21 is our next Fellowship Sunday! The theme is "100,000 Welcomes!" Be here to welcome our new members who will join us, and renew friendships as well! Fellowship Sunday happens between the worship services, so stay late if you attend the 9:15 or come early if you attend the 11:15, and welcome one another to UCG!

A Time to Join UCG

The church is a container for our joy and our grief, our passages and transitions. The church holds us and shelters us when we need comfort, challenges us when we need to grow, and provides a direction for life's journey. We will welcome new members to UCG on Sunday, February 21 at the 9:15 & 11:15am services. The orientation session for new members is on Thursday, February 11 at 5:30pm in Reimer Hall. Child care is provided. Sign up on Sunday morning or e-mail the church office (info@ucgainesville.org) if you are interested in joining.

Calling UCG Gardeners

We will be meeting on Saturday February 27th at 9am to spruce up the UCG grounds including the parking area. There are areas of our UCG campus that our normal landscaping service does not maintain. I invite you to come and enjoy a morning of early spring cleaning working alongside other UCG members. We will be pruning shrubs, vines and trees for safe access and building security as well as discussing how we can freshen up our landscaping look. Please contact Erick Smith with questions. (352)380-0648 or erick@kestreleco.com

Family Promise

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED February 28 - March 6 for our Family Promise hosting! We will be hosting 3-4 local homeless families and have opportunities for you to prepare a dish, spend the evening helping with dinner and homework, overnight hosting, setting up and tearing down. Please consider supporting this important ministry - signups are available in the courtyard on Sunday or online at <http://bit.ly/ucghostfp>. All-Church Read of Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Voted an Amazon Best Book of July, 2015: "Readers of his work in The Atlantic and elsewhere know Ta-Nehisi Coates for his thoughtful and influential writing on race in America. Written as a series of letters to his teenaged son, his new memoir, Between the World and Me, walks us through the course of his life, from the tough neighborhoods of Baltimore in his youth, to Howard University—which Coates dubs "The Mecca" for its revelatory community of black students and teachers—to the broader Meccas of New York and Paris. Coates describes his observations and the evolution of his thinking on race, from Malcolm X to his conclusion that race itself is a fabrication, elemental to the concept of American (white) exceptionalism. Ferguson, Trayvon Martin, and South Carolina are not bumps on the road of progress and harmony, but the results of a systemized, ubiquitous threat to "black bodies" in the form of slavery, police brutality, and mass incarceration. Coates is direct and, as usual, uncommonly insightful and original. There are no wasted words. This is a powerful and exceptional book." --Jon Foro

Our entire congregation is encouraged to join in a reading of this challenging book. Beginning March 6 books will be for sale in the church office and a helpful readers' guide will be available to help us experience the book more fully. Coffee talks and opportunities to interact with one another will be offered during the spring! More info to follow!

Just in Time for Spring Cleaning!

The UCG Book Sale - Sunday, April 10th, 2016

The annual UCG Book Sale is happening on Sunday, April 10th in the Courtyard. We need your donations of gently used books, CDs and DVDs for this event! We will be accepting donations at UCG on March 27 and not before. Volunteers are needed to help with sorting before the sale and during the sale. This is our major annual fundraiser with 100% of the proceeds used to support the UCG sponsored Mommy Reads program and the UCG library. If you would like to help with the book sale contact Becky Johnson at rjohnson5510@gmail.com or call 352-256-1145.

Lent at UCG

Lenten Contemplative Prayer

Tuesdays, February 16 - March 15, 6pm in the Sanctuary

Led by Sandy Reimer, we will draw on this year's Lenten worship theme, "We Make the Road by Walking," to frame and deepen our experience of this season. Each session will include silence and prayers, scripture and contemporary readings, connected with spiritual practices that can accompany our walk as we travel the journey from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday. During each session, we will also gather in small groups for twenty minutes to share with, listen to, and pray for one another. Participants are asked to commit to at least three of the five sessions. Please register by February 11 by calling the church office.

Labyrinth Walks, February 7-12

The labyrinth will be available for walking Monday through Thursday, 8:30am - 4:30pm and Friday 8:30am - noon. Everyone is invited to spend time in walking meditation.

Check out these great February Adult Seminars

FEBRUARY 7TH - THE WILDLIFE CORRIDOR with Lois McNamara - What is it that stops large animals, such as bears or panthers, or even indigo snakes, from traveling throughout the state? It's not the ranchers, the farmers, the suburbs, fences, our lakes, or the St. John's River. It's I-4! This was proven by a bear with a radio transmitter collar that traveled half way up the state from the Everglades into Celebration, Disney's model community, but was stopped cold by I-4; it subsequently turned back to the south. Come see the bear's 500 mile trek over two months in the film "Florida Wildlife Corridor Expedition: 1000 Miles in 100 Days." Learn how we can protect our large wildlife.

FEBRUARY 14TH - WALKING 500 MILES OF THE COLORADO TRAIL with Josh Hellstrom - Josh shares about his experience walking the Colorado Trail which he found was an important and spiritual journey.

FEBRUARY 21ST - A SOJOURN TO CUBA with Joni Ellis - Join us on a visual journey to the forbidden island that has intrigued so many. Joni will discuss her environmentally friendly tours, especially her involvement with Optics for the Tropics, providing binoculars and tracking devices to scientists in Cuba because we share migrating species with Cuba

FEBRUARY 28TH - The Camino de Santiago with Andy Bachmann - As part of his sabbatical last year, Andy walked 500 miles along the Camino de Santiago in northern Spain. The Camino is an ancient pilgrimage that ends in Santiago de Compostella, where it is purported that the remains of St. James the Apostle are buried. Come learn about Andy's experience on the Camino through his pictures

"Celebrating 50 Years" Still Available

A few copies remain of "Celebrating 50 Years" of UCG, on sale in the church office. The 100-page book is full of stories and photos about the 50-year history of UCG, focusing mostly on the past 20 years. It also has a detailed chart of UCG history, including membership, financial information and moderators over the years, and a list of UCG members who have died. Many thanks to the many people who contributed to this book, especially to Anne Casella, Darrell Hartman, Marj Hauptman, Sean Ochal, Sandy Reimer and Diana Tonnessen for putting it all together. Mostly, we thank the members of the congregation, for it is their story we are telling. Individually and collectively, with the ministers we so value, our lives have been enriched. The book is on sale in the church office for $25. If you can't afford that at this time, the church will accept whatever amount you feel you can pay.

Understanding Racial Disparity in Alachua County

United Church of Gainesville March 11—13

UCG is hosting a weekend symposium this spring called "Understanding Racial Disparity in Alachua County," co-sponsored by the Alachua County Chapter of the NAACP. This event will be held at UCG during the weekend of March 11-13, 2016. Three outside experts on issues of racial equity will guide the weekend, and we will be joined by invited members of our Alachua County community with related experience and expertise. The symposium will begin Friday evening, continue with a program of workshops on Saturday, and conclude with worship and seminars on Sunday morning March 13th.

Our intent in hosting this symposium is to become more educated about the extent, nature and root causes of racial injustice, both in general and specifically in Alachua County. Through data collection and relationship building, we hope to learn how to support the pursuit of racial justice in our community.

All UCG members are welcome to attend this important event in the life of our church and community. For Saturday's workshop discussions we are especially seeking the participation of UCG members who have experience or a special interest in the elimination of racial disparity in Alachua County, and a commitment to continuing action in our community.

We are pleased to welcome three expert resources for the symposium. Doug Nelson served as President and CEO of the Annie E. Casey Foundation for twenty years. Currently, he is on the Board of the Carter Center, Chair of the CDC Foundation and an advisor to the widely acclaimed Race to Equity Initiative in Dane County, Wisconsin. Joy Moore is a nationally known Equity and Communications Consultant, focusing on inclusion and disparity issues. Everett Mitchell is currently the Community Relations Director for the University of Wisconsin, Pastor of Christ the Solid Rock Baptist Church, and a candidate for Circuit Court Judge for Dane County.

We hope you will join us for as much of the weekend as you are able. Please register for symposium events using the flyer (registration form) available in the church office.

Council Corner

Nancy Dana, Moderator

For our first meeting in the new year, Council took some time at our meeting on January 20th to reflect back on the goals and aspirations for our work chairing boards and committees that we had set for ourselves at the All-Board Kick-Off in August. Reflecting back provided inspiration for our work ahead in this calendar year.

In addition to reviewing the final budget that was presented and approved at the congregational meeting on Sunday, January 24th and continued focus on the Three-Year planning process that is being led by CMRB, Council is also beginning preparation for Time and Talent Sunday. This year, Time and Talent Sunday will be led by Moderator-Elect Will Dougherty on Sunday, March 6th. Our February Council meeting will be devoted primarily to finalizing plans for this day, as well as carrying out the nomination process for Moderator-Elect. It is sure to be a busy spring for Council!

Time and Talent March 6

Nancy Dana, Moderator

When I first joined UCG, I so enjoyed attending our amazing worship services every Sunday that I didn't even consider any of the other wonderful opportunities UCG offers to connect with others in our spiritual community. It wasn't too long after joining that I took a deep breath and a leap of faith and signed up on Time and Talent Sunday to serve on my first board, something I was a bit nervous about doing. Of course, it turned out GREAT and I've been serving on a board or committee ever since! I learned that becoming involved in a UCG Board or Committee is nothing to be nervous about, but a wonderful opportunity to share your skills and develop new ones, as well as to connect more deeply with other UCG members and the ministers. For me, it has been a wonderful way to branch out and enhance my Sunday morning worship experience, making new friends and deepening relationships I already had.

This year's Time and Talent Fair is scheduled for Sunday, March 6th from 10:15 – 11:30 in the Courtyard. This is your once a year chance to join a Board or Committee where you make new friends and connections with UCG members and ministers as well as play a role in continuing the spirit of UCG! Current board and committee members will be set up in the Courtyard during Fellowship time, enticing you to visit them with treats and encouraging you to get involved. Come, join the fun and be part of the future! (Please sign up for only one board or committee.)

If you miss Time and Talent Sunday, please contact the church office and ask for the chairperson's contact info of the board or committee you're interested in or contact Nancy Dana, Moderator. Any of us will be happy to chat with you and help you become involved in sharing your gifts!

Read about these opportunities, and then sign up to serve on a board or committee at the 2016 UCG Time and Talent Fair!
